

90 Degree Web Turn Bar

Available on machine models: SP1 & SP1DL

Allows web to make a 90 degree turn after it exits the splicer

Advantages, Functions & Features

- All stainless steel components
- +/- 1 in (25 mm) height adjustment
- .25 degrees of angular adjustment

Functional Requirements

- Must be fixed to floor or solid base
- Turn bar input roller must be parallel to splicer output roller
- Turn bar exit roller must be parallel to next downstream roller in process
- Turn bar will add 50-100% to total web tension

Installation Requirements

- Factory option or field installed

